

ANCHORMAN BLUES (BLEEP IT, WE'LL DO IT LIVE)

I've been reading the news since I was thirty-two
Trying to be a trusted voice for all of you
But things I endure you could not believe
Including every freak from DC to Tel Aviv.

My producer's got the brains of a cockatoo
The reporter is as jumpy as a kangaroo
But the lowest of the low is the camera crew
Which is where I finally met my Waterloo

Chorus: I said, bleep it, we're going to do it live
That's it, let's kick into overdrive.
I said, bleep it, we're going to do it live.
This kind of stuff nobody could contrive
[That's it, it's time to blow this dive]

The sponsors all gave me a thorough dressing down
The Chair Person warned, "If I were you, I'd leave town."
I never thought my wife would cheat on me
But I'm told the weather lady is sweet on me

Chorus (B): I said, bleep it, we're going to do it live
That's it, I'll take the power dive
I said, bleep it, we're going to do it live.
That's it, it's time to blow this dive
[This kind of stuff nobody could contrive.]

Verse (A): I hope they can forgive; I hope they'll let it pass
I would not like to live by the underpass
I'll give my mea culpas, and I'll take back my wife
To live is to forgive, let's all get on with life

Chorus (B): I said, bleep it, we'll do it live
That's it, let's kick into overdrive
I said, bleep it, we're going to do live
This kind of crap nobody could contrive

FINE
